Bajaj To Launch New Pulsar Variant

Bajaj Auto will launch another variant of the Pulsar as it looks on capturing a large share of the Indian motorcycle market. The new Pulsar variant will be launched on 10th December, 2009 and will have slight design tweaks to take on the fight to the Yamaha FZ16 straight on. Though there hasn't been much disclosure on the bike, we expect it to have a slightly tweaked mill of the existing Pulsar. Checkout the teaser here

Edit - It seems the new variant is the XCD Sprint which is re-badged as the Pulsar 135.
