

Published based on Harley Davidson India Begins Dealership Selection Process

Harley Davidson India Begins Dealership Selection Process

Harley-Davidson India will initiate the selection process for dealerships, seeking interested parties from New Delhi and the NCR regions. Harley-Davidson will hold dealership camps in New Delhi on 1st and 2nd November to give interested applicants an opportunity to meet with Harley-Davidson's representatives and guide the applicants through the requirements for opening Harley-Davidson dealerships in the region.

Harley-Davidson also announced that the deadline for dealership applications has been extended to November 2, 2009 given the forthcoming festive season and in order for all interested companies or individuals to apply for dealerships in their regions. Moreover, Harley-Davidson is also open to receiving indications of interest across all cities in India for future development.

You can also find this article published on Harley Davidson India Begins Dealership Selection Process, and on the tag pages Harley-Davidson.