Hero Honda launched a slight upgrade to the Karizma R a few months back. The changes were not revolutionary and were very subtle but welcome nonetheless. The 2011 Karizma R features maintenance free battery, new instrument colours, silver coloured R stickers, clear lens indicators, side reflectors, and re-designed engine cowl. The company has given the new Hero Honda Karizma R all black treatment along with offering new body colours such as Spotlight White, Darling Yellow, Sport Red, Power Black and Force Silver. The 2011 Karizma R does not have any sort of mechanical changes but the bike now boasts of ASFs (Advanced Swirl Flow System) technology. The 2011 Hero Honda Karizma R is priced at Rs. 88,942/- for the black cast version and Rs. 89,742/- for the red cast version (all prices on-road, Mumbai).
