

Published based on Honda Twister Debuts Day After

Honda Twister Debuts Day After

Honda's upcoming 110cc bike CB Twister will not compete with sister company Hero Honda's Splendor and Passion when it gets officially available in the country on the 10th of this month. The company will position its new bike in a niche segment with prices being higher than the competition. The Japanese major intends to introduce element of style which Indian people have never seen in this segment.

You can also find this article published on Honda Twister Debuts Day After, and on the tag pages Honda CB Twister.