Yamaha To Launch R15 & FZ16 Racing Kits

Yamaha India is testing racing kits for the Yamaha R15 and Yamaha FZ16 in Japan. The racing kit parts include race ECU, high lift cams, full exhaust system, special alloy sprockets, adjustable back steps and braking parts like big diameter petal disc brakes, master cylinder, and stainless steel hose. These parts will be available from September 2009 onwards and are exclusively for racing purpose. The racing kits are developed with the help of Daytona Corporation of Japan.
