Yamaha FZ1 Abarth

You read that right. The FZ1 Abarth Assetto Corso was developed in collaboration with Fiat's sport division, Abarth to celebrate the Italian firm's founder Karl Abarth's 100th birthday.

This FZ1 Abarth concept is based on the FZ1 which is powered by a 1,0-liter engine derived from the Yamaha's R1 superbike. The 4-cylinder unit produces an output of 150HP at 11,000 rpm.
