Audi India plans to increase its dealership network in the country and aims to grab 30% share of the luxury car market by 2011. Audi currently holds 20% share in Indian luxury car segment. Audi has entered into dealer partnership with Bangalore-headquartered Jubilant Motors for appointing dealers in Southern market.

"Currently we have 11 dealerships in major cities. We will be soon appointing new dealers in Lucknow, Jaipur, Coimbatore and Nagpur," Audi India MD Benoit Tiers said.
