As posted earlier about the Chevrolet Captiva AWD, General Motors India has launched the automatic version of its Chevrolet Captiva SUV. The Chevrolet Captiva Automatic+ is priced at Rs 20.3 lac (ex-showroom Delhi). The car features an automatic all-wheel drive (AWD) that GM claims is able to adjust between four-wheel drive and two-wheel drive automatically according to the terrain.

"The new Chevrolet Captiva Automatic+ brings superlative comfort and ease of driving combined with unbeatable value, safety, security and luxury to our customers," GM president and managing director Karl Slym said.
