Fiat Linea Race Car

Fiat Linea is a very good car when it comes to handling and high speed stability. That does not mean its not good in other parameters but the car runs as a race car. Yes, the Linea runs in Motorsports. As can be seen in the pictures, the car is fully prepared for the track with lowered body, stiffer suspension, roll cage, rear spoiler and the stuff. Now only if someone gets influenced and uses it in our Indian rallies against the likes of the Ford Fiesta and Mitsubishi Cedia.
