Ford Figo Faces Capacity Constraints

Ford India is facing capacity constraint with Figo commanding a waiting period of close to 5 weeks. The small car is clocking fantastic sales for the US automaker with close to 8000 units being sold in March. The most popular variants are the ZXi and Titanium (top end) and the company has already decided to begin second shift operations at Chennai from June to cope with order backlog of Figo. Lets hope that Ford gives us an RS version of the Figo with the Fiesta mill powering the car.
