Honda To Discontinue City E

Honda has priced the Jazz in Mumbai between Rs. 7.43 and 7.78 lakhs. Due to this high pricing Honda just realised the difference between the top end Jazz Active and the City base variant is just Rs. 50,000/- Thus Honda plans to discontinue the base E variant. The 1.5E variant of the Honda City has all the features of the higher variants, except beige interiors. Honda wishes to increase the price gap between the Jazz and the City to position both the cars better, or so they say.
