Jeep Cherokee To See The Light In India

There has been a lot of flutter on Chrysler's Jeep hitting Indian shores but nothing concrete. However with Fiat partnering up with Chrysler (20% stake expected to go up to 51% soon), the launch of a number of Chrysler models in India is highly likely. Fiat's Ranjangaon facility could produce the Jeep Cherokee, as Chrysler wishes to expand its arms in one of the world's fastest growing passenger car markets.
