Suzuki A-Star Unveiled At Paris Motor Show

For the first time, the much talked about Sukuki A-Star, also known as the Alto in some countries, was unveiled at the Paris Motor Show. Amid hot competition in the small car market, Suzuki launched its fifth global model small car, which would be manufactured at Maruti Suzuki India's production facility at Manesar and exported to Europe as the Alto.

The 'A-Star' will be launched in India by mid-November this year. It is expected to be priced around Rs 4 lakh and is meant to combine style and impressive fuel economy.
