Maruti R3 Concept At 2010 Auto Expo

Maruti Suzuki is exhibiting the R3 Concept at Auto Expo 2010 (our first impressions will follow soon). The Maruti R3 is a Compact Multi Purpose Vehicle (MPV) designed by Maruti Suzuki India's Research and Development Department, it combines compact dimensions with a stylish profiling. The Concept compact MPV accommodates six people in three rows. The 6-seater Concept MPV is an all-new compact vehicle completely different from any of the existing cars from the Maruti Suzuki family and hitherto unseen at any auto international show. Concept R3 has been conceptualized, designed and built from the scratch by a team of talented Indian designers in India over a short time span of nine months.
