Maruti To Launch Ritz On 15th May

Maruti will launch the Ritz in India on 15th May, 2009. The Maruti Ritz website is up and running and you can checkout the website of the Ritz here.

Ritz will be India's first BS-IV compliant car. The Ritz is positioned in the premium A2 market segment, which includes Maruti's compact offerings such as Alto, WagonR, Swift, Zen and the recently launched A-Star. Ritz will be available with two different engine options: a brand new K-series of 1.2 litre, four-cylinder, 85PS petrol engine and a 1.3 litre, 16-valve, 75PS diesel engine.
