2011 Suzuki SX4 Unveiled In China

Suzuki China has unveiled the 2011 SX4 at the Guangzhou Auto Show. The new SX4 now features a slightly revamped exterior along with an upgraded interior and added features. However the powertrain of the Suzuki SX4 remains unaltered. Other than the smart key and DVD playback system for rear passengers, the SX4 is quite similar to the one sold in the Indian market. The slight aesthetic upgrade along with lots of chrome is a welcome change for the Indian market, which we expect to debut on the SX4 diesel.
