Facelifted Maruti WagonR Gets K-Series Engine

The upcoming Bharat IV emissions norms has forced every automaker to upgrade their engines and Maruti Suzuki has to upgrade its complete portfolio. Next in line for upgrades is the Wagon R, which will get the now famous 1.0 liter K-Series engine from its younger siblings - A-Star and Estilo. The car looks very much like the Estilo and Maruti seems to have done the exterior upgrade for the sake of it. Anyways we aren't complaining as we are yet to see the interior, which going by the trend will have a bit of beige thrown in. Also on the cards is a small price hike, which is obvious, isn't it?

SPIED WAGON-R FACELIFT!

Here are exclusive spy pics of the new Wagon-R that will be launched at the Auto Expo with the new K-Series engine and Estilo-ish styling
