Mercedes-Benz A Class

Fiat recently launched the 500 and BMW is planning to launch the Mini Cooper. Hence Mercedes Benz thought why not us, why should we stay behind? They (Mercedes India) say that they are evaluating a possibility for introducing the A Class range in India.

“We are evaluating the Indian market regarding price positioning and overall perception of the company as far as the A Class range is concerned. However, we have not taken any decision so far whether and when to introduce the A-Class car in India,” says someone from Mercedes Benz India.
