Mitsubishi Evo X Spied At Chennai

We are eagerly waiting for the Mitsubishi Evo X launch next month and Mitsubishi is surely gearing up for the event. The Evo X is every enthusiasts dream car and was spied at the Madras Motorsports Track at Chennai. Available internationally since sometime, its was high time the Evo X came to India, much to the relief of fans.

With barely a few weeks upto the launch, Mitsubishi is probably heating up the automotive scene by running the Evo X on the racetrack. As with most cars, pricing will be the key but with import duty etc etc, this car will not fit in the common man's pocket. It is expected to be priced around 40 lakhs but exact specs and pricing will be available at the launch.
