Skoda To Launch New Superb & Laura

Skoda India will launch the next generation Superb and Laura in the next few months. The company will also venture into the sports utility vehicle (SUV) segment with the launch of its Yeti in early 2010, expected to be priced around Rs 10 lac.

“We have finalised plans to launch the next generation Superb in India and the new Laura will hit the market in the middle of 2009. We want to remain the segment leader in the Rs 10-25 lakh bracket,” Mr Kuehl said.
