Skoda Auto has launched a stripped down variant of the Laura. The new base petrol, known as the Laura TSi Classic won't feature fog lamps, rear parking sensors, automatic climate control, leather wrapped steering wheel, gear and brake lever, lumbar support adjustment, front center arm rest, rear AC vents and storage compartment under the front passenger seat. The Laura Classic now has steel wheels and a single CD player and is priced at Rs. 11.99 lakh (ex-showroom, Delhi).
