Tata Indica Vista Concept S At Auto Expo

Tata Motors always shows a new concept based on the Indica at every Auto Expo. They had the Indica Silhouette some years back and this year they got the Indica Vista Concept S. Though on the spec sheet the car does not boast of any mechanical changes, but on the visual side it looks quite appealing with those mean intakes and wheels. Tata should not have any problems putting this into production but will they? Our guess is as good as yours!!
