

Published based on Tata Motors To Focus Globally

Tata Motors To Focus Globally

Tata Motors plans to focus on various countries around the globe to drive its growth. The company hopes to increase its market share in Russia, China, Middle East and countries in Africa to widen the passenger car and the commercial vehicles range. We are seeing definite signs of economic recovery globally. Vehicle sales in China and India have driven the industry out of difficult times, something which would definitely help Tata Motors penetrate into different territories.

You can also find this article published on Tata Motors To Focus Globally, and on the tag pages Tata.