

Published based on Tata Nano On Display At Hewitt National Design Museum

Tata Nano On Display At Hewitt National Design Museum

The Tata Nano is being displayed at the Cooper-Hewitt National Design Museum in the Great Hall at 2 East 91st Street in Manhattan beginning this Thursday. The Cooper-Hewitt is showing the Tata Nano because, as the world's most affordable car, it is a design achievement. The car will remain on display till 25th April, 2010. So if you haven't seen the car in flesh and stay in New York, you have plenty of time to get a glimpse.

You can also find this article published on Tata Nano On Display At Hewitt National Design Museum, and on the tag pages Tata Nano.