

Published based on Toyota India Small Car Is The Etios

Toyota India Small Car Is The Etios

Toyota India has finally given a name to their much awaited small car. The Toyota Etios which will be the center of attraction at hall No. 6 will come in both sedan as well as hatch versions and will be powered by either a 1.2L petrol or a 1.4L diesel, both engines benefiting from excise concessions. The Etios will have as much as 70% local content with the remaining 30% comprising of the engine and gearbox which will be imported from Japan. Toyota is looking for 10% market share in the Indian car market and plans to manufacture 70,000 units of the Etios in its first year.

You can also find this article published on Toyota India Small Car Is The Etios, and on the tag pages Toyota Etios