2010 Toyota Prado India Launch Tomorrow

Toyota India is launching the 2010 Prado sooner than we expected. The refreshed Land Cruiser Prado will be officially launched tomorrow and possibilities can't be ruled out of it carrying Fortuner's diesel mill underneath. The 3.0-liter D-4D oil burner produces 171bhp of power at 3400Rpm and a crazy torque of 410Nm at 1600-2800Rpm. Though there is no confirmation on the pricing we expect nothing less than Rs. 45 lakhs for the new Prado.
