Toyota Prado To Fly On Diesel Power In 2010

The Toyota Prado has flopped big time in India, despite being a Toyota. Reason is the lack of diesel power which the company intends to address with the launch of the new Prado next year. The Prado will continue to be brought in as a CBU which will lead to a price in excess of Rs. 45 lakhs. Maybe Toyota can just plonk the fabulous diesel mill from the recently launched and hot selling Fortuner.
