

Published based on Micheal Schumacher Returns To F1

Micheal Schumacher Returns To F1

With Felipe Massa out of action due to the injuries sustained in qualification for the Hungarian Grand Prix and making a strong recovery, there was quite a confusion who would be driving his Ferrari at Valencia. But the confusion has been put to rest by Ferrari who has announced Micheal Schumacher will be taking the wheel of the F60 for the next race.

"The most important thing first: thanks God, all news concerning Felipe are positive. I wish him all the best again. I was meeting this afternoon with Stefano Domenicali and Luca di Montezemolo and together we decided that I will prepare myself to take the place of Felipe. Though it is true that the chapter Formula 1 has been closed for me since long and completely, it is also true that for loyalty reasons to the team I cannot ignore that unfortunate situation. But as the competitor I am I also very much look forward to facing this challenge."

You can also find this article published on Micheal Schumacher Returns To F1, and on the tag pages F1.