Unless you have been living under a rock, you will be aware of the trio (Jeremy Clarkson, Richard Hammond and James May) visit to India to shoot this years Top Gear Christmas Special. Every year the British Motoring Show has a winter special and this year the BBC wanted it to happen in India, to promote trade in the country. Fans became crazy when they spotted the presenters at some even had a chance to meet them and get snapped with them. Now Top Gear has released the date when the India Special will air and it is slightly more than three weeks away - the 28th of December, 2011. A small trailer of the India special (starts at 2:02 in the above video) has been released too, so if your a Top Gear fan like us, make sure you watch it to see whats in store.
