Top Gear Australia Preview

If you thought the Brits had done it all with Top Gear - wait until you see Top Gear Australia, debuting on SBS Television on Monday 29 September at 7:30pm. In the first episode of an eight-part series, hosts Charlie Cox, Warren Brown and Steve Pizzati play hard with all-wheel drives on sand and snow.

There is a glimpse of the new LP560 Lamborghini Gallardo super sports car, Charlie test drives the latest Porsche 911 and Warren tests the appetite of Great White Sharks off the coast of Port Lincoln – using himself as the bait.

One of Australia's hottest actors, Vince Colosimo (starring in SBS's Carla Cametti, PD), is Top Gear Australia's first studio guest. "Surf, snow, sand, sharks and supercars - episode one of Top Gear Australia has got the lot!" said Top Gear Australia's SBS Executive Producer, Denise Eriksen. "Charlie, Warren and Steve - well, Charlie and Steve - have driven like stars and Warren has done his best with sharks and sausages."

Check out this video preview of Top Gear Australia. If you are not in Australia (just like us) don't fret we will help you watch TG AU :)
