The Times Group had organised the Mumbai International Motor Show at Bandra-Kurla Complex and frankly speaking there was nothing international about the show from any angle. You can check out all the cars by visiting the nearest showroom so the name of the motor show is itself misleading. The entry fee was Rs. 100 ($2) and it wasn't worth it. Anyways fret not, since we have all the pictures coming up for you from the Mumbai ~~International~~ Domestic Motor Show.

We can't post all the pictures in one post, so we will do multiple posts. Here is whats to follow : -
