We all have dreams and our dreams starts and ends with cars and bikes, right? Well there are quite a few of these lucky people who actually live the dream. They have the cars which we can only dream of and they have awesome garages to store them. So how does it really matter where the car is parked? Apparently it does and you can see how the most exquisite cars are given the most beautiful shelter in the high resolution gallery linked above. Enjoy and keep dreaming just like us.
